Why do you wish to apply for books through this Donation Project?

As Institute of Development Management's program offerings expand exponentially the need to expand horizons with its vision.

Besides the 100 books on Japan available through this donation project, what kind of books related to Japan do you wish to acquire?

If there are any manga such as Miyazaki Hayao's series which are written both in English and Japanese, we predict our student will love.

If you have any particular books you wish to receive in your list of applied books, please specify. (The project cannot secure the result, but your answer would help us select the books.)

Tatsumi: The Fish Market at the Center of the World, Theodore C. Bestor. It was not easy to choose one from so many lists.

Does your library hold any special events for its users? Any events related to Japan (E.g. Lectures, concerts, outreach events)?

We hold an annual Japanese Speech Contest on March 14, 2019. Besides this event, we are also planning to hold some lectures on Japanese culture.

Any other comments

Our library would be very honored to receive this donation and we are confident that a great number of people would profit from the access to this body of information/knowledge. This will also support our efforts to create a hub for the dissemination of knowledge about Japan and for cross-cultural communication and exchanges.
Do you want to receive the package or does the Embassy of Japan in your country/region receive it? TNF will confirm the shipping information later, but please talk to the Embassy of Japan about the receiver.

☐ The applicant will revive the package.
☐ The Japanese Embassy/Consulate will receive the package.

Even if the Japanese Embassy receives the books, customs duties may be imposed. Please consult with the Japanese embassy in advance about the replacement and payment of customs duties.
